CPMC Apartments for California Pacific Medical Center patients:

If you are scheduled for surgery at California Pacific Medical Center, you may call ahead and put your name on a “waiting” list for an apartment. The availability of these apartments is extremely limited. One advantage is they are extremely reasonable and very close. An extreme disadvantage is not knowing until the day before surgery whether or not the apartment is available. Ask about availability when you arrive at the hospital’s pre-admitting department.
